Using iPad: Using Paper: Here's the free training sheet I mentioned (click on the photo you want to download): If you're already a free member of the Tuesday tribe, you can pick them up as soon as possible from the resource library! Procreate training discs File type: procreate Size: 5.1MB Minimum software version: 4.0 printable training plates File type: pdf Size: 676kb Minimum software version: n/a Here's a quick written overview of each manual bet, what you will ever need: There are 8 strokes: upstroke, downstroke, overturn, underturn, compound curve, oval, ascending loop and descending loop. Mastering these beats allows you to create consistent, well-structured and consistent letters for all the styles you create in the future. Keep the same thickness and thinness in all letter forms for maximum consistency. Get used to the amount of pressure used in each one. The more you practice, the faster and easier it becomes. Pay special attention to areas that go from thick to thin or thin to thick. You want to avoid sudden changes in pressure; it should always be a smooth transition. Practice, practice, practice! These strokes become fine-tuned muscle memory the more you use them. I'll see you next. section 2! Extract more than 50 design + lettering files for you when you join the Tuesday tribe for free!
